

Parent Job Description

- 1.) Bring my son or daughter to all games, practices, and events prepared and on time
- 2.) Be supportive of all players, coaches, and referees at all times
- 3.) Be pleasant to all parties in the gym
- 4.) Offer my assistance to coaches by volunteering my time in a helpful way when possible
- 5.) Volunteer my skills to the league as either a score keeper or statistician
- 6.) Discuss the recently played game or practice with my child in a positive, constructive manner
- 7.) Disagree without being disagreeable
- 8.) Realize that the definition of success is the satisfaction that you did your best to become your best (not comparing my child or my child's team to any other)
- 9.) Don't have "Did you win?" be the first words out of my mouth after a game
- 10.) Encourage practice of recently developed skills at home, as well as the D-League Philosophy
- 11.) Seek D-League staff assistance, and work with them in a cooperative manner, if my child does not seem to be getting the playing time or attention to which he or she is entitled
- 12.) Maintain good balance in my life and my child's by realizing that basketball is not everything – its just a game that we play to have fun
- 13.) Let my child dream and believe in him or her self
- 14.) Stay positive and enjoy the season!
